Dear business partner,

We would like to assure you that Isabellenhütte Heusler GmbH & Co. KG fully complies with all legal requirements of the European Union as well as international sanctions, especially the Russia sanctions. Compliance with these regulations is of utmost importance to us, as they not only represent our legal obligation, but also form an essential part of our corporate ethics and responsibility.

To ensure that we meet these obligations, we have established internal compliance procedures and control mechanisms to ensure that our business activities and transactions comply with applicable laws. We continuously train our personnel involved in these issues to properly implement and control these regulations.

In addition, we are always ready to cooperate with the relevant authorities and institutions and to provide all necessary information.

We take our obligation to comply with EU laws and Russia sanctions extremely seriously and firmly believe that this contributes to maintaining our integrity and reputation.

We thank you for your confidence in our company and are available to address any questions or concerns you may have.

Sincerely,

i.V. Klaus Gail
Director Purchasing

i.A. Britta Altenähr
